CHANGES TO THE BUILDING CODE ACT
&
ONTARIO BUILDING CODE

Effective January 1, 2007, the Ontario Building Code made 700 changes that may affect you. Also, persons engaged in the business of providing “design activities” must meet prescribed qualifications. Design includes a plan, specification, sketch, drawing or graphic representation respecting the construction of a building.

Additional information, including the text of the Regulation, and Questions and Answers, can be found at the Ministry’s website, www.obc.mah.gov.on.ca.

DEFINITIONS

Building Code Act – Definitions. In this Act, “building” means,

- (a) A structure occupying an area greater than ten square meters consisting of a wall, roof and floor or any of them or a structural system serving the function thereof including all plumbing, works, fixtures and service systems appurtenant thereto,
- (b) A structure occupying an area of ten square meters or less that contains plumbing, including the plumbing appurtenant thereto,
- (c) Plumbing not located in a structure, or
- (d) Structures designated in the building code; (“bâtiment”)

“construct” means to do anything in the erection, installation, extension or material alteration or repair of a building and includes the installation of a building unit fabricated or moved from elsewhere and “construction” has a corresponding meaning; (“construire”, “construction”, “travaux de construction”)
